Settled.

We are certainly glad to learn that by the timely interference of friends the trouble between J. A. Hudson, former editor of the Courier, now editor of the Macon Times, and Dr. Norris, one of the editors of the Macon Democrat, has been amicably settled, without the loss of life or additional shedding of blood. We have refrained from saying anything about this trouble heretofore, fearing that by publishing the statements of either party, made during intense excitement incident to the affair, we might do one or both injustice. In his trial for assault upon Dr. Norris, Hudson was fined $50 and costs. Subsequently Norris drew his pistol on Hudson and called him to halt, telling him at the same time that he would never again permit him (Hudson) to pass him (Norris) while he (Hudson) carried the deadly weapon (a cane) with which he (Hudson) assaulted him. The parties were separated without exchange of shots. Then some reputable citizens interposed their good offices to effect a settlement, which was crowned with success, doubtless to the relief of both parties, who, according to agreement signed by each, were to quit carrying deadly weapons to be used on each other, to quit their personal abuse in their respective papers, and Hudson to withdraw the libel suits against the editor of the Macon Democrat and Dr. Norris.

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the Genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at W. C. Gaston & Co's. Drug Store.

The general conference of the M. E. church, at its late session in New York, voted against the admission of female delegates to that body. Now we may expect the action of the conference to be condemned in unmeasured terms by the "strong minded women" of the country, both in and out of the church. Some of them who are clamoring for female suffrage advised, pending the vote of the conference, all women who are members of the M. E. church to withdraw from it, in case the vote should be against the admission of female delegates.

Consumption Surely Cured.

To THE EDITOR.—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post-office address. Respectfully, T. A. STECKM, M. C., 181 Pearl St., New York. 41m6.

NATURE is full of wise provisions. Wives do their worst cooking when they are young and irresistible.—Indianapolis Journal.

The Jackson township correspondent of the Linneus Bulletin gives the particulars of the killing of Jas. B. Clark, by his wife some time since, from which we abridge the following: Clark was a drinking man and had not been getting along pleasantly with his wife for several months. He left her and went to Marceline, where he engaged as laborer, while she secured a situation as house-keeper for a man named Broyles. Clark returned to the neighborhood with the view to getting his child away from his mother. He was seen several times in the vicinity of Broyles' house in an intoxicated condition. Fearing trouble, Broyles met Clark and advised him to leave the premises, and went to a distant part of the farm to work, when Clark went to the house where his wife was and forced his way through a door she had barred against him, which she forbade him doing. He got inside with an open knife in his hand, threatening his wife severely. Mrs. Clark picked up a revolver and fired at him, the ball taking effect above the right nipple. Mrs. Clark then ran to a neighbor's house, a mile away, and told what she had done. On reaching the premises the neighbor found Clark still alive, but he died in a few minutes. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of killing in self-defense. The woman is about 20 years old.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Mundy, esq., County Atty., Clay county, Texas, says: "I have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother was also very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcox, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters.

This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c and $1 at W. C. Gaston & Co's.

The Washington City correspondent of the Missouri papers speak well of Mr. Mansur's speech on the tariff question. In fact, Charlie has made a brilliant showing on any question he has yet undertaken to discuss. He is a good worker and goes to the bottom of every measure with which he comes in contact. We would like to see him returned to congress, but do not wish to be understood by this that we would have any good Democrat in the district from making the race against him. This is a free country. Every freeman has a right to submit his claims for preferment to the people. We would exclude none from the exercise of the privilege to make a square and manly fight in his own behalf.

Beware!

Notice is hereby given that any person or persons found trespassing, hunting or otherwise, within my enclosures will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. I have had three hogs killed and a cow shot, and it is about time to call a halt upon such serious and fatal trespasses. Wm. E. HILL.

Nevada's Waltzing Giants.

"Out in Nevada, said a mining man from White Pine, 'we have the sublimest dance that any man ever saw. We call it 'the dance of the giants.' Great cylinders of sand, from eight to twenty-eight feet in diameter, and sometimes immensely tall, come careering across the desert with a whirling, waltzing motion that is very graceful. I have often seen them when they must have been two or three miles high, for their tops reached into the clouds. But oftener there will be one big column, with a lot of little columns attending it, all waltzing together. The effect is the strangest thing imaginable. It is both sublime and grotesque. It inspires you with awe, and at the same time it fills you with a desire to laugh at the odd performance. And if the man is superstitious, the weird, fantastic sight can make him feel mighty uncomfortable. They are never seen except in the summer time, and are most frequent in July. They have their beginning in some incipient whirlwind, which snatches up a handful of sand while the surrounding air is still, and then they keep on growing and moving onward. They are not like the cyclones farther east, for they move with very little noise, and, instead of being funnel-shaped, are of the same size from top to bottom. The motion is the same, being both circular and advancing. They draw up into the cylinder fabulous quantities of sand, tons of sagebrush and sometimes good-sized stones. How far they travel nobody can tell. They must travel the whole distance of the White Pine valley, 350 miles, and sometimes they come down through Spring valley from Idaho to the Peranegat valley."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The Jefferson City Tribune regrets that reputable newspapers and reputable men, who are candidates for high positions, are inaugurating a campaign in this state that is at once unfair, undignified and undemocratic. The same is a source of regret to all right thinking Democrats. Let those who have sinned in this particular do so no more. Then promote harmony by recognition of, and obedience to regularly constituted authority in party organization, and all will soon be sailing upon a smooth sea in the direction of a sure and easy victory in November next.

UNCLE MOSE, entering the house of Judge Pennybunker was astonished on hearing a parrot exclaim: "Take off your hat!" He complied at once, ejaculating with chattering teeth: "Sense me, boss; I mistook you for a bird. I did, shua."

A DUDE who was visiting friends in the country complained of the eggs. "They seem," said he, "lacking in flavor; compared with our city eggs, they are rather insipid, aw!"
